SUBJECT: DCI Notes Item re Academic Relations

ACTION

REMARKS:

Jack, the DCI did not get to this before he left.

As you probably know, this was directed by the DCI in response to confusion on his policy which was expressed when he met with a MAG-type group of summer interns. He told them that he would clarify his position in the Notes.

Second, the material is almost entirely quotes from documents which are not going to change in any conversation with Harvard types. In other words, he is reporting his position as he has already expressed it. And, of course, he personally reviewed the text and approved it.

I'm not sure that the next notes will appear before his return, so you may wish to raise your point with him directly. Otherwise, I believe that this document would stand on its own merits and is unlikely to warrant change after talks with Harvard, and is, frankly, overdue in response to the issue raised by the summer interns and which the DCI said he would handle in the next DCI Notes.

Remarks:

Sir:

Might it not be better to withhold comments on the Harvard guidelines in "Notes from the Director" until such time as our forthcoming discussions with representatives of Harvard University are completed?
